Buyer and Seller Conditions

We do not have any affiliation with 'eBay the company'. eBay simply did not buy all the variations of their name so we have this one.

This website is aimed to provide a predominantly free service and for extended classified advertisements, there are two very small fees. These are to help cover the cost of running this platform.

- Advertising any product or service (of any value) is FREE for the first 2 weeks (14 days including weekends).

Advertisements can include vehicles, caravans, land, property (UK & overseas), adult etc

- Repeat advertisements and ones that are required to run longer than 2 weeks (14 days) are subject to a small classified advertisement fee.

Under £250 (Value) - £5 per month

Over £250 (Value) - £10 per month

If the option is for either £5 or £10 per month classified advertisement fee, the first month will be free.

- WANTED advertisements are FREE as 'word only' advertisements with a maximum of 250 words. Wanted advertisements with a photo are £5 per month

- To help us keep this website free and/or with very small classified advertisement fees, there is a restriction of one photo per advertisement.

- An advertisement can display a seller's email address, telephone number etc
- We do not operate any unfair buyer/seller policies like the ebay company.

- This website is promoted on all the Social Media platforms
- No advertisement of an illegal product/service will be accepted
- We do not take any responsibility if any sale of a product/service between a buyer and seller results in a dispute. It would be between the buyer and the seller. Buyers are responsible for due diligence of a seller.

- Buyers must contact a seller directly for further details and/or to purchase. We cannot mediate between a buyer and seller.
